

I oppose any changes to FCC media ownership rules that will allow further consolidation of media sources into the hands of a few large corporations. On June 2nd, please retain the current ownership rules.